SUPREME COUNCIL FACES CRISIS

WELL KNOWN YOUNG MAN A SUICIDE

Charles W. Goodwin Takes Life on Vaughan Street This Morning

Charles W. Goodwin, 35, who resided with his parents on South School street committed suicide this morning by taking an overdose of Bromidia, in the alleyway from Vaughan street leading to the Olympia theatre.

In conversation with Officer Anderson at 9 o'clock this morning, Goodwin appeared in the best of spirits and nothing unusual was noted in his demeanor when he purchased the death portion from a local drugstore this morning between the hours of nine and ten o'clock.

After getting the Bromidia, Goodwin walked down Congress street and into the alleyway on Vaughan street and there drank the fatal dose.

A phone call to the police from one of the stores on Congress street said that a drunken man was acting strangely on Vaughan street and Chief Hickey sent Officers Anderson and Tucker in the patrol wagon to take care of him. On arrival both officers saw from Goodwin's appearance that something other than intoxication was the matter and immediately rendered him all the assistance possible in the way of first aid. They rushed the dying man to the police station where medical aid was immediately phoned for, but Goodwin died in about three minutes after reaching the station. Medical Referee Pender was summoned and after an examination said that death was caused by an overdose of the Bromidia that was found on the body.

The two-ounce bottle was about a third empty. A druggist this morning said that Bromidia is often taken as a nerve sedative and that a teaspoonful constitutes the maximum dose. After Dr. Pender made his examination the body was taken from the police station to Miskell's undertaking room on Market street.

That Goodwin had been brooding about a love affair that has turned out unfavorably to him is well known.

Several stories that he had threatened the young woman's life by shooting the taking of his own life was the outcome of the affair which was said to be terminated last fall when the young woman left her employment at the Button shop and left the town.

The druggist that sold Goodwin the Bromidia said that he was thoroughly familiar with the medicine, having used it as a nerve medicine for many years, but the pharmacist could not

Premieres Meet to Outline Plan to Avert Disaster to Peace Plans--Military Decisions Will Be Rendered at Once to Combat Hungarian Bolshevism

RIOTING STILL RAGES IN EGYPT

SLOVAK ARMY SENT AGAINST HUNGARY

(By Associated Press) Copenhagen, March 24.—A Czechoslovak army has been sent against Hungary according to an official report received in Vienna and forwarded

(By Associated Press) The question of the barrier which the peace conference intends to erect against the spread of Bolshevism into the former central powers has come sharply to the front as a result of the situation in Hungary, where Bolshevik elements have seized Hungary and the Entente powers.

Premiers of the allied states were called to meet in special session in Paris this afternoon and it was reported that important military decisions might be taken at the meeting of the supreme council later regarding the situation in Hungary and Poland.

Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Pichon had a long conference yesterday and it is indicated by Paris newspapers that action looking to military movements was taken. Paris newspaper writers view the situation as one calling for military action. They express the belief that Germany is behind the movement for the purpose of defeating the work of the peace conference. Some newspapers in London think the Hungarian situation is partly the result of the delay of the peace conference in bringing about a preliminary peace. Rioting is reported to have occurred in Budapest but there is no reliable information regarding the extent of troops which have been in Hungary for several months. Two French divisions are at Budapest and Serbian and Rumanian troops are available for use in Hungary should their services be needed.

The extremist element in Hungary is said to be in absolute control. In addition it has called on the workers of adjoining countries to rise against their governments. It is understood in Paris, according to one report, that the three Polish divisions in France will be shipped at once to Danzig. The allied proposal to use Danzig as a port of debarkation for these troops was one of the main causes for the breaking off by the Germans of negotiations with the allied commission in Poland.

German newspapers have strongly denounced the proposal to give Poland the port of Danzig and a corridor to it. The extremists are active in Vienna but the government still is in control. Reports from Czechoslovakia, where the Bolshevik movement is reported to be strong, are meagre. Reports that the Bolsheviks have large forces of troops in Galicia, ready to advance into Hungary, lack confirmation.

Paris, March 24.—A conference of the Premiers was called for three o'clock this afternoon to arrange the program of the supreme council session an hour later. The news from Hungary and Poland was expected to spur the heads of the governments to military decisions of the first importance. The peace conference has been advised by entente agents of the critical situation in Hungary. Some street fighting in Budapest has been reported and while the lives of entente nations are said to be safe, it is urged that they need the protection which would be afforded by monitors proceeding up the Danube from Serbian ports.

Paris, March 24.—The league of nations commission will convene at 8.30 o'clock this evening with the expectation of virtually concluding the draft of the league's covenant.

Berlin, Sunday, March 23.—A dispatch to the Reichstag announced the disarmament of entente troops at Budapest. It is unconfirmed and appears questionable.

(By Associated Press) Paris, March 24.—Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German Foreign Minister, has sent one of the under Secretaries in the foreign ministry to Moscow to see the chief of the Soviet government and to furnish an accurate report of the situation, which will allow the foreign ministry to study methods of the bringing about of closer political and economic relations with the Russian Bolshevik government, says a Zurich dispatch to the Matin.

POLICE WILL HOLD WOMEN RESPONSIBLE FOR GOOD CONDUCT OF STRIKING TEXTILE OPERATIVES

(By Associated Press) Lawrence, Mass., March 24.—The general committee which is directing the strike of textile workers now in its 8th week, today announced its selection of committees to confer this afternoon with officials of the four mills of the American Woolen Co., the Everett and the Knickerbocker mills. The conference will be the first since the strike began looking to an agreement between mill agents and employees on the demands for 54 hours pay for the new 48 hour week. Picket lines were so numerous maintained by the strikers and their sympathizers during the hours preceding the opening of the mills that the strikers were jammed. Police officers dispersed crowds that picked several street corners and notified Mrs. Glenowen Evans the Brookline woman who led the principal body of pickets that unless passage to the mill gate was kept free, she would be held responsible by the authorities. Observers estimated that more than 10,000 persons made up the strike patrols.

DECLARE CZAR IS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Chicago, March 24.—Lieut. Frank Lakomy and Corp. Stanislaw Puck, Czech-Slovak officers on the way from Siberia to Paris, told a strange story Sunday to a reception committee and newspaper men. Lakomy said: "While in San Francisco last Monday I met several former Russian officers, now privates in the American Army. They recognized my uniform, I chatted with them for several minutes and to my astonishment one of them told me he was positive that the former czar is in San Francisco. He refused to give me his reasons for believing this, but said the czar is supposed to have reached Vladivostok and have taken passage incognito with two of his most trusted officers."

Lieut. Lakomy is an aid to Minister of War Stojanik.

CONGRESS SPENT $57,000,000,000

Washington, March 24.—Accomplishments of the 65th, or war, Congress are officially reviewed in the final number of the Monthly Compendium of the House of Representatives, appearing Sunday. Unfinished business of the Congress, which necessarily must be considered in the Legislative program of the new Congress, soon to convene, also is contained in the publication, which was edited by W. H. Loomis, an official of the House.

"Constituting, as it does, a statistical retrospective of the accomplishments of the 65th Congress, says Mr. Loomis in a foreword of the Compendium, 'the final issue of the Monthly Compendium throws the searchlight on the transactions of three sessions of unparalleled events. When the Congress met in April, 1917, the country was at peace. In the interim a war had been declared, a war had been won and a war had been ended.

"So this issue carries legislative history of a character that, perhaps never again will be duplicated, both as to the amount of money authorized to be expended and as to the extent of the revolutionizing of the social and business lives of the people of the Nation."

The 65th Congress is shown to have appropriated approximately $57,000,000,000, passed 349 public laws, 48 public resolutions, 48 private laws and conducted 32 Congressional investigations. A total of 22,601 bills and resolutions were introduced, of which 1,681 originated in the House and the remainder in the Senate. President Wilson vetoed five measures.

President Wilson's part in Congressional matters is set out by a list of notable dates, including his approval of history-making laws and his numerous addresses. It is shown that for the first time laws were signed in a foreign country; that for the first time a measure, a revenue bill, was signed on a railroad train; that for the first time a President had addressed the Senate in favor of woman suffrage, and signed a bill to "move the sun forward an dith backward" and had gone on the floor of the House to shake hands with members of foreign war missions.

Another unprecedented feature of the Congress pointed out by the Compendium was that "practically one-fourth of all the laws of the three sessions were approved during the last nine days of the Congress. The President signed 115 bills and resolutions from Feb. 2 to March 4."

Fifteen Representatives, 10 Senators and 10 ex-members died during the Congress. Two former presiding officers of the Senate, Theodore Roosevelt and Charles W. Fairbanks, also are included in the death roll.

A list of authors of bills receiving action beyond mere introduction shows a predominance of names of chairmen of committees. Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the Military Committee, with 58 measures, led the list, with Senators Myers of Montana, chairman of the Public Land Committee, second with 35 bills; Representative Underhill of Tennessee, heading the Naval Committee, led in the House with 36 measures and Representative Dent of New Jersey, chairman of the Military Committee, was second, with 35 bills.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by having a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two or three drops of Sage and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous, old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wygates Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses Wygates Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it works so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

In the Fuel Field.

There is a curious situation just now with reference to the fuel outlook for the coming year. The Fuel Administration is urging early buying on the ground that coal is more plentiful now than it will be later, owing to the demand for export. The governor of Pennsylvania has asked the attorney general what authority the state has to investigate the reasons for the threatened advance in prices, he being unable to reconcile the present condition in the coal fields—where numerous mines are operating on short time because of the surplus on hand and a lack of orders—with the announcement that the price of coal will begin to go up May 1 and advance steadily thereafter. And only a few days ago at the convention of the New England Coal Dealers' Association at Worcester, Mass., a prominent New York coal man warned the dealers that they would have to reduce their prices if they expected to hold their trade.

These things would indicate that matters are somewhat mixed. The people are urged to buy early in spite of the long-standing practice of reducing the price at the beginning of warm weather; they are told that instead of a reduction in prices at that time, this year they will begin to go up, and they are also told that owing to lack of orders and great stocks on hand many of the mines are operating on short time.

One thing is certain, and the people know it. There will be no valid reason for maintaining the prices that have prevailed for the last two years, and if this is done or attempted there will be just ground for complaint on the part of the people and action on the part of the government in their behalf. Their patience has been exhausted by the extortions to which they have been subjected by the coal barons since the beginning of the war, and they will not longer submit if there is relief to be had. And if the government cannot prevent a continuance of the imposition there will be a widespread feeling of disappointment and resentment.

A mine operator recently stated that out of every dollar paid for coal the operator receives only 10 cents, the rest going for labor.

If there is power in the country to straighten this matter out and secure some measure of justice to coal consumers it should be brought to bear; and if there is not such power it should be created.

From the beginning of the war the government has taken good care of producing corporations and of labor. It is about time for it to do something for the common people, who thus early in the season are threatened with a continuation of war conditions in the fuel field.

The people of all the region served by the P. D. and Y. Electric Railway have reason to be well pleased with the improvement made in the service by the receiver, W. G. Meloon, who has shown a master hand in his management of the system. The changes have been altogether for the better, and may they so continue to be in the future.

Maine selected the 151st anniversary of the birth of Neal Dow, father of the Maine prohibitory law, as the date for the celebration of victory for national prohibition. This was appropriate, but if national prohibition doesn't do more for the nation than Neal Dow prohibition has done for Maine there will still be something lacking.

The Chamber of Commerce does well in taking up the matter of securing employment for returned service men, in place of the government office recently closed. There are many cities and towns in which this example might well be followed.

The Legislature has fired the job of selecting a state flower and has turned the matter over to the botanists at New Hampshire College and Dartmouth. But do botanists know more about "state" flowers than anybody else?

The fact that night work at the Internal Revenue office has been suspended is evidence that the income tax work is progressing favorably. But there is yet a lot of hard work ahead of those who pay the taxes.

The city hall looks much better and has a more wholesome atmosphere since undergoing its recent housecleaning. The conditions found by those who did the work proved that it was greatly needed.

Massachusetts sticks to capital punishment—in theory. But in that, as in most of the states, executions are few and far between, notwithstanding the startling number of murders and many convictions.

The lower branch of the Legislature favors a $30 bonus and a medal to every man from this state who was in the service. The sum cannot be considered extravagant if anything in this line is to be done.

MAKE-UP OF NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE BEFORE CIVIL WAR

This publication of the legislative manual of New Hampshire nearly 63 years ago will no doubt be interesting reading to the people of this city and the state. Three wars have occurred since these men made laws for the Granite State and it is doubtful if one of them are alive today.

The House of Representatives has increased 58 members and the Senate enlarged from 12 to 24 members. The sessions were held in June. The city of Berlin was a small village and together with the town of Randolph sent one man to the General Court.

Manchester, which at present, has 60 members in the General Court, was represented by 11. Portsmouth and Dover had seven each and Somersworth which has since changed its name to Great Falls and again gone back to Somersworth, has gained but two representatives.

Lacoda had a lone man in the General Court.

Of these 31,412 were American Republicans, 30,014 were Democrats, and 748 were scattering. Thirteen towns and wards, casting about 3,000 votes, failed to make returns before the official count made by the Governor and Council. Including these, the entire Senatorial vote is about 1,500 less than the gubernatorial vote. The official Senatorial vote shows an anti-administration majority in the state of 2140.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Looking After More Work.

Two committees representing the Navy Yard Improvement Society, have been in Washington this week in the interest of additional work.

Still in the Game

Arthur Hinton well known in the local Sunset League, will be one of the new team of ball players to represent the U. S. S. Southey the coming season. At present he is acting as captain in the practice work of the men.

Hoping For Another Game

Many admirers of the Yeomen (P) basketball team hope that the opportunity to meet the Boston Yeomen (P) will yet come as they feel that playing the game in the absence of arbitrary rules the Portsmouth girls can play a defeat on the ladies from the Blue state.

Need Two Yeomen (F)

The yard pay office has made a request for the services of two yeomen (F) which will shortly be sent here from another station in the First Naval District.

Don't Want it Closed

The plan to do away with the yard trades school is a disappointment to some of the employees who still have hope that the school will be retained for certain branches of the work.

Must Have the Goods

While the fans say it is good news to hear that the U. S. Receiving Ship Southey will put a baseball team in the Sunset League the command of that ship states that he will not approve of a nine from that ship entering the league unless it can make good and nothing but good practice and previous games will prove the team's fitness for the league. He says they have got to have the goods and he thinks they will work hard to make it.

U. S. Naval Ships on Way to Canal Zone.

United States warships Supply, Essex, Palmer and Allegany, arrived at Jamaica Sunday from Guantanamo to take on supplies. Five seaplanes also arrived from Guantanamo and the monitor Shawmut was expected. The vessels are expected to leave for the Canal Zone Tuesday.

Torpedo Boats at Porto Rico

Eleven United States torpedo boat destroyers, seven submarines and a mother ship arrived here Sunday.

Magoon of New Castle Injured

Bert C. Magoon of New Castle is at the Naval Hospital suffering from injuries to his back. He was engaged with five others in moving a tank at 11:20 when it was dropped. The extent of his injuries are not known.

COMMUNITY SING AT SERVICE CLUB

The Community Sing held at the Service Club Sunday afternoon was led by Mrs. G. L. Hanson. The enlisted men and young women present joined heartily in the singing and all seemed to enjoy the varied and pleasing program.

In the evening Mr. Hendy and Mrs. G. L. Hanson gave vocal solos and Dr. Hanson gave a reading. The program also included community singing.

AT Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Percy Warren Caswell had charge of the service for enlisted men at the Y. M. C. A. building on Congress street Sunday afternoon. The Fellowship Lunch followed the service.

The paper with the great Associated Press service, the Herald.

Amerongen, March 24.—Anxiety prevailed at the von Heintzke Castle throughout the night and this morning in consequence of the ex-German Emperor's having received last night two violently threatening letters, one emanating from Amsterdam and the other from the Belgian frontier, and also a telegram from a friend warning him of peril.

All the Dutch gendarmes watching over the ex-Emperor's welfare were kept on duty, instead of half their number being allowed their accustomed rest.

All the garden paths in the neighborhood of the shed where William Hohenzollern was engaged in sawing wood were constantly patrolled by armed guards this morning, while even outside walls of the castle gendarmes were carrying loaded carbines. One man was watching each of the four sides of the castle and other precautions were taken to insure safety.

say how much the young man was in the habit of taking for a dose or how often he used it.

Goodwin was an employee at the navy yard for several years and was well known about the city, where he was a lifelong resident.

Dr. Pender, in a statement to a Herald man, said that a letter that was found on the body had nothing in it that would lead the authorities to believe the young man had received news from the girl that had led him to commit the rash act, but letters that were received from Joseph Goodwin, the man who since married the girl Goodwin was mainly in love with were in the dead man's pocket. It seems that an extensive correspondence between the woman, her husband and Goodwin was carried on for several weeks, but was suddenly broken off last winter and has not been resumed. The police do not know the whereabouts of the couple at present and they have not visited this city since leaving it last fall.

About a year ago Goodwin applied for permission to carry a revolver and he had told friends he intended to shoot the girl.

LIBRARIAN OF THE VATICAN DEAD IN ROME

(By Associated Press)

Rome, March 24.—Cardinal Cassetta, Bishop of Frascati and Librarian of the Holy Roman church, is dead.

POLICE NEWS

A young, fine appearing "vamp" from Lynn, Mass., that has been stopping in town about two weeks, was taken into the custody of the police yesterday and spent the night in the local detention camp of the blue coats.

Officers Gray and Anderson took a chance of being "vaunted" and escorted the young woman to the local station. This morning she was given permission to bid Portsmouth and its attractive collection of sailors adieu and she departed on the Boston train.

Sunday isn't a day of rest to the minions of the law and yesterday was an exceptionally busy one. Alonzo C. Piper, a chauffeur, in his zeal to burn gas, overlooked the trifling details of a 1919 license and number plates for his Dwyer truck and drove blithely about the town without either. Officer Anderson glanced at the outfit and politely inquired the cause of the missing necessities of travel, but Alonzo had more faith in the speed of the Dwyer than he did in the power of speech so he stepped on the speed pedal and started for Christian Shore and freedom.

Officer Anderson commandeered a taxi and gave chase and the two drivers had a nip and tuck race to Christian Shore and back, but the taxi had a little the best of the speed test and the race came to an end in the city.

Alonzo proved a hard loser and got slightly heated up over the affair but a 1919 license and number plates made to the local station.

This morning, Alonzo, after a thorough airing of the case at the municipal court had his offense against the state laws continued for sentence.

PASSENGERS ON NIGHT TRAINS COMPLAIN

Obliged to Get Off Trains in the Dark Up in the Railroad Yard.

Continual complaint is heard from passengers on the night trains of the Boston & Maine, who are justified in their complaints when they are obliged to get off the east bound trains up in the railroad yard 300 yards or more from the depot where there is neither a walk or light.

Women and children are obliged to walk this distance in rain and snow, between freight and passenger cars and in the dark.

After a struggle they finally find in the depot.

What has become of the safety first slogan of the railroad, which, a while ago, was before the eyes of the employees night and day?

Such conditions are surely inviting accidents and the company is mighty lucky to have escaped so far without one going on record that might cost the B. & M. twice the amount it would expend in providing what is necessary for all passengers traveling on its lines. It is understood that the matter will be taken up with the federal railroad administration.

RED CROSS APPEAL FOR CLOTHING

The Red Cross is this week making an urgent appeal to the people of this city and vicinity, for old clothing for the refugees of France, Italy, Belgium, Serbia and Russia in fact all of the countries which have been overrun by war.

This drive is being made all over the country this week and the Portsmouth drive will be on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and the old Court house on Court street will be the headquarters or receiving station. This will be open on these days from two to five o'clock each afternoon, with ladies present to take the clothing and get it ready for shipment, which will be direct to the floater pier, where they will be taken charge of by the Red Cross.

This drive is the result of a cable message from Mr. Hoover who is the Director-General of the allied relief, and he states that unless clothing is supplied the mortality rate will be high. In the four years of the war they have used every conceivable kind of material and clothing of every description is needed. Shoes of every description are needed and men and women as well as children's wear, outer garments as well as underwear.

BUTLER TO MEET YELLI IN THIS CITY

The Rockingham A. C. has booked a good bout for Monday evening, March 31st of Walter Butler of Revere has been matched to meet Freddy Yelli in this feature bout of 12 rounds. Both of these boys are great performers. They met at Marlboro last winter and while the decision went to Yelli there was a great deal of dissatisfaction with the verdict. Efforts were made to get them together again but it was up to the local club to turn the trick as they were given good inducements to appear here. Young Champion of Somersworth is expected to go 8 rounds with Greek Aker of Boston. They are both sweet hitters and should make an interesting bout. A good preliminary will start the show. With a show like the above there should be a full turnout of the fans.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSES TO THE GLOUCESTER HIGH

The High school basketball team were defeated by the Gloucester High, championship team at the Armory on Saturday evening in a rattling good game. The visitors were however too much for the locals, and they won by a score of 47 to 22.

The visiting team showed remarkable team work, and while as individuals they were no more brilliant than some of the locals, they showed the result of excellent coaching and hard practice. They always kept the ball moving fast and their floor work was perfection.

Smith at center, Thurston and Gordon as forwards were a trio that always were in the game and they apparently could shoot baskets from any angle. For the locals Averill played the star game shooting five baskets and Badger and Kirkpatrick shot two each. It was no discredit to the locals to be beaten by the Massachusetts champions.

The line up and score:
Gloucester H. S. Portsmouth H. S.
Thurston 1. c. R. G. Campbell
Gordon 1. f. L. G. Purber
Smith 1. c. C. Smith
Averill 1. g. R. F. Averill
Curtis 1. g. L. F. Kirkpatrick
Score: Gloucester 47, Portsmouth 22. Goals from the floor: Smith 7, Thurston 8, Gordon 8, Averill 6, Kirkpatrick 2, Badger 2; Goals from fouls: Gordon, Kirkpatrick 4; Referee, Cragin; Scorer Cushing, Timer, Cragin.

SPOKE BEFORE THE CENTRAL LABOR UNION

At the meeting of the Central Labor Union, Sunday afternoon, Hon. D. W. Badger made a very interesting talk on the benefits of pure, wholesome milk and demonstrated the necessity for the inspection of milk by regularly constituted health authorities. It was shown that the cost of inspection and pasteurization would not be in excess of two cents per quart, and by concentration of selling agencies the additional cost could be eliminated.

Senator Marvin read extracts from the educational bill, and explained the effects of the proposed measure. It provides for the education and Americanization of the foreign born immigrant, and also includes a provision for an adequate minimum salary for all school teachers.

The talks were interesting and instructive and received the endorsement of the C. L. U.

the following cablegram from Lieut. Col. Charles A. Stevens, adjutant of the 26th Division:

"Col. Major, relieved, remains in France. Col. Richard K. Hale, Boston, chief of staff, Divisional Headquarters and 16,000 leave here March 30; balance of 15,000 will leave two weeks later, Stevens."

Col. Stevens' telegram adds allusion to the recent announcement of the War Department that the 26th Division would sail between March 23 and April 19 and is only at variance a matter of two days with Brig. Gen. Charles H. Cole's cable to Gov. Coughlin giving March 28 as the date of sailing of the first units of the division.

WIND MADE SHOOTING DIFFICULT

There was a fair field of gunners at the Saturday afternoon shoot at the Portsmouth Country Club traps, and some good scores were made under the most difficult conditions. There was a strong northeast wind blowing, and it was directly into the trap, so that the targets made some queer flights. If the wind caught them right they would rise sharp in the air and almost come back to the trap house, as if it would frequently drive them down they would shoot off low with a jumped motion.

It was interesting shooting, and required a quick eye, as only in a few hills were the targets flying in a normal manner.

In the twenty-five single event Harry Green was high man with 23 and teamed up with Houdman (Hendall) they were high for the two men team match breaking 44 out of fifty targets. This team match proved to be an interesting event with six teams contending. Dodge was second man in the singles and R. Harold Ham Utd. in the doubles Ham and M. Renick were the high 15 each.

The scores:

25 Targets
Green 20, Dodge 19, Ham 18, M. Renick 17, Wendell 16, Taylor 16, Norton 13, Roberts 12, England 12, Garfield 11, W. Renick 10, Torrell 8, Brucham 8, K. McDonough 7, Pass 5.

Two Teams 50 Target

Dodge and Roberts 38
M. Renick and Norton 35

THUMBNAIL SERMON

"And it repented the Lord that he had made Man."—Bible.

The "Small Boy" and his daddy are in love with each other. The "Small Boy" has been taught, from his birth, to fear and to hate no one. May he never realize that every one does not love him. His daddy is often saddened by the thought that he must make enemies but those who wish to be my enemies will not be denied that privilege, nor will their ears be assailed by regrets and apologies.

"The female of the species is more deadly than the male."—Kipling.
"The Efficiency Expert" met with deserved opposition because his system made senseless machines of human flesh and blood. I am opposed to "institutional efficiency" because it robs charity of the elements of sympathy and love and debases the beneficiaries below the level of the beast.

"The more I know of men the better I like dogs."—Madame De Stael.
Both animals have their good points. In some respects the canine has the better of the argument. With both one must be patient and hope for improvement in the breed. The dog claims affection because he can not reason. The man, challenges sympathy because he does not use his intellect.

"I pray thee, Ben, write me as one who loves his fellow men."
The angel wrote and vanished. The next night.

It came again with a great awakening light.

WAY AT LAST MADE CLEAR TO GET BONUSES

Conflicting instructions issued that the new papers to discharged or released soldiers, seamen and marines in connection with their applications for that $50 bonus to which most of them are entitled are responsible for general misunderstanding among these who are ready to apply for the money.

In the latter part of February, news came from Washington indicating that the bonus money was ready for distribution. All one had to do was address a letter to the proper official, outlining his services history and ask for the cheque. It would be sent forthwith. The application was to have been addressed to the Paymaster General of the Navy in the case of seamen or marines, and to the Director of the Division of Finance, War Department, if the applicant was a soldier. With the application for the money the writer was to have enclosed a copy of his discharge and a brief history of his service.

A few weeks later Secretary Daniels issued a statement containing an order for men of the navy and Marine Corps who were about to apply for the bonus. The original instructions published in February, were altered and corrected. The gist of Mr. Daniels' order was that only originals of discharges or releases would be accepted. The men in the Marine Corps were directed to apply to the officer who acted their accounts, and to mail their applications to the Paymaster General of the United States marines if they had no way of locating the officer who last paid them. Men of the navy itself were directed to apply to the Disbursing Division, Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Washington, D. C. Mr. Daniels' order emphasized the necessity of forwarding the original discharge or release from active service.

The most recent set of instructions seems to have been for soldiers only. They now must direct applications to the Zone Finance Officer, who is located in the Leman Building in Washington. A certified copy of the discharge will be accepted.

Men of both services have been so confused by the various orders and sets of instructions that many of them have not the slightest idea of where their applications should be directed or whether a copy of the original of their discharge papers is necessary.

A TRIBUTE TO LURA ELIZABETH STAPLES.

The death of Miss Lura Elizabeth Staples in Boston on Monday, March 17, brought to a close a life which will ever be an inspiration to all who knew her—a life which moves beyond question what peace, what joy, what happiness, what service can be gained through the power and love of God. She bore the trials of a long and tedious illness with wonderful patience and fortitude. Never a complaint, never discouraged—she brought cheer to all who came in contact with her. Loving, most lovable, and angel-like were the terms usually applied to her by physicians, nurses and friends. A soul more innocent of wrong in thought, word or deed, a soul more unselfish never passed from this life.

She was born in Eliot, Maine, September 1, 1896, the daughter of Lyman A. and Emma Pickering Staples. Besides her parents she is survived by three sisters and three brothers, Helen Ruth, Elsie, Russell and Harold Staples of Eliot, and Dr. Lawrence M. Staples of Boston.

Miss Staples attended the public schools of Eliot, graduating from the Eliot High school in 1914. While continuing her education at the Graham Normal School she became stricken with cerebrospinal sclerosis, a very rare disease for which medical science has yet to find a cure, and which four years later caused her death.

Removed to Boston for medical treatment, away from home and girlfriends, shut in from the outside world, confined to her bed, unable to scarcely move hand or limb, eyesight partially gone, suffering and helplessness increasing as the disease progressed, she found refuge and peace in her Savior's love. A love that enabled her to bear her burdens and smiling say: "He holds my hand in His! How can I fear? It is not hard to trust while he is near."

"I have really all that matters—I have God—and God is love." Her mind seemed to be constantly on the folks at home and the health of her father and mother, the welfare of brothers and younger sisters were as much in her thoughts as if they well-being depended on her efforts. Her patriotism was characterized by her unselfishness for when a brother who had been her constant companion, was considered enlisted, she urged him to do so saying "don't let me stand in your way. If you believe it your duty to enlist, do so. I will be helping my country too, by letting you go."

Thus, this angel girl endeavored herself to all with whom she came in contact, by her loveliness, her cheerfulness, her shining through (ears) her patience and her Christian faith. Such is the monument she had erected and our only consolation is if we live as she lived in constant communion with her Savior, we shall soon meet at last.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous uric salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate of soda and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation. Thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

DOVER

Dover, March 21.—Envoy E. A. Long of Waltham, Mass., was the special speaker at the Salvation Army Saturday and Sunday Evening Long, who is a most eloquent speaker, spoke to a large audience at the barracks Saturday evening. A praise meeting was held at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon and another in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Private Richard Campbell, who enlisted in the Coast Artillery company from Dover and has just returned from France, addressed the Dover Baptist Bible class at the noon hour Sunday. Private Campbell is an excellent speaker and as he has kept a complete record of events since the date of his enlistment, he was able to give a most interesting address.

The children attending the graded schools that is, all schools outside of the high school will not be obliged to continue in school later than June 13, the date set for the termination of the spring term and they will also be allowed the regular two weeks vacation which will begin next Friday. Although a great deal of time has been lost during the year owing to the influenza epidemic, the school officials believe that practically the necessary amount of work will have been made up by June 13.

The roof of the dwelling house on Middle street owned by Daniel Chesley and occupied by Joseph Fitzpatrick and family was badly damaged by a fire which was discovered shortly before 11 o'clock Saturday forenoon. The entire roof will have to be re-shingled. According to Mrs. Fitzpatrick she placed some shingles on top of her coat fire in the kitchen stove and it is thought that some of the flying sparks from these burning shingles landed on the roof.

The state tax commission of New Hampshire, John T. Ames of Lancaster, Judge W. D. Fellows of Tilton and A. O. Brown of Manchester, met the assessors and selection of Stamford county in the city hall Saturday morning. There was a very large attendance, the roll call showing that every city and town in the county was represented. Selection were also present from some of the towns in Maine, Carroll and Rockingham counties.

Miss Sarah F. Jenkins died at her home, 23 Nelson street, Sunday morning after a long illness, aged 62 years. She was born at Madbury, Nov. 26, 1856. She lived in her native town until a few years ago, when she took up her residence in this city. She is survived by a nephew, Fred Jenkins, of this city, and several cousins.

E. J. York, John Mithus and H. F. Foster left Dover Sunday morning for Buffalo, N. Y. They will make a short stop in Buffalo and then proceed for the west.

Local blues of the League of Nations are getting a bit busy with all the lectures and explanation on the subject. Most people just make a snap judgment and trust the Lord they're right.

Though your guests may be charmed by your home while they are in it, they will always carry in their minds the first impression gained as they came up the walk looking for the number. And the windows make that first impression! The window tells the story. No matter how your other decorations may modify it, that first decision will always remain about the same.

Your windows connect the sturdy walls of your room with the great world outside. Therefore your windows need a covering that will soften this sharp contrast—a lace that will veil without excluding the view.

TO FIND JOBS FOR ENLISTED MEN

Chamber of Commerce to Open Employment Bureau in Charge of Richard A. Cooney

The Board of Directors of the Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce met on Saturday afternoon in conference with Governor Bartlett, Mayor Hildrop and Mr. Richard A. Cooney, who has been in charge of the United States Employment Service office in this city, to consider the matter of finding jobs for returning soldiers and sailors. Governor Bartlett spoke briefly, setting forth the great need for such work and suggesting that the matter of securing such employment be taken in hand at once. The subject of finding work for the unemployed, with especial reference to returning service men, is one in which the Chamber of Commerce has been deeply interested and the Directors voted to at once form a Soldiers and Sailors Bureau, with headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, 31 Pleasant St. The functions of this Bureau will be to secure work for men returning from military service and it will be in charge of Mr. Cooney, who will have the advantage of the facilities and records which have been used in the work under the United States Employment Service.

This is an important step in the effort to relieve whatever unemployment conditions may exist now and in the immediate future and the Chamber of Commerce should receive the hearty cooperation of every employer of labor. This cooperation can best be extended by notifying the Chamber whenever there is an opening for labor.

President Sise appointed Vice President F. W. Hartford and H. L. Costello a committee to handle the plan for the soldier employment bureau to work with Mr. Cooney and to conduct the department.

TRANSFERRING MANY OF THE ATLANTIC MEN

In the absence of many mechanics at the Atlantic on Saturday, many were permitted to be transferred to other trades. It is the plan of the management to keep all the men employed if possible but they must be placed on work that they are competent to do. In this manner it is hoped to lessen the number to be laid off.

GOLD STAR PLACED ON METHODIST SERVICE FLAG

At the Methodist Church on Sunday evening the service was unusually impressive, as a gold star was placed on the service flag in memory of George Walter Bryant, an enlisted man whose death from illness occurred about two weeks ago.

The young man united with the Methodist church while on duty at this post, and was a fine, manly fellow and made many pleasant acquaintances in the parish. He taught in the Sunday school and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.

The service last evening was a patriotic one, the service flag being the background for the address. The subject of the noble address by the pastor, Rev. Elmer F. Nowell, was, "What is true bravery?—a gold star?"

Miss Mae L. Warren placed the star on the service flag and read a poem appropriate for the occasion. Mrs. Inez McIntire then gave a patriotic selection.

COLONIAL.

"There is no vulgarity in nakedness—clothes and civilization create vulgarity. The women of the island of the South Pacific wear virtually no clothing at all, and they are more modest than the Broadway broker, and a whole lot less vulgar."

This is the observation of Mrs. Martin Johnson, wife of the adventurous cameraman whose motion pictures of the savage peoples of the south seas have just been released as a five-reel feature under the title of "Cannibals of the South Seas." Mrs. Johnson accompanied her husband and the most dangerous exploits of his fourteen months' expedition.

These wonderful pictures, other features and vaudeville are being shown today and tomorrow at "The Colonial."

COURT MARTIAL BOARD ORDERS LIEUT. DISCHARGED

Placed on Trial for 16 Days' Absence Without Leave.

The navy department has ordered Lieut. Bell, a member of the naval reserves, dismissed from the service.

Lieut. Bell was tried by the court martial board at the Portsmouth navy yard on a charge of being absent from duty for a period of 15 days without leave.

He is said to have been formerly connected with the Southern Pacific Steamship Company and entered the service of the navy for the duration of war. He previously lived in New Jersey and New York.

It is understood that the court martial board were inclined to make the sentence more severe but the secretary of the navy decided that dismissal was sufficient punishment.

ENSIGN MUST SERVE TWO YEAR SENTENCE IN NAVAL PRISON

Found Guilty of Appropriating Liberty Bonds of Inmates.

Ensign Peterson, a member of the Naval Reserve, attached to the Naval Prison, is now serving a sentence of two years in that institution as the result of the findings of the court martial board at Portsmouth navy yard.

Peterson is alleged appropriated several Liberty Bonds of the inmates of the prison which he disposed of in Providence where he formerly lived. The court martial board recommended a ten year term but this was reduced to two years by the Secretary of the Navy.

MAY ESTABLISH ANOTHER RADIO STATION AT SHOALS

Officials Survey Appledore Island for Radio Transmission.

Ensign Kennedy and Radio Draftsman Laycock of the navy department have recently been at the Isles of Shoals where they made a survey of Appledore Island. It is said their visit had to do with the establishment of a transmission radio station in connection with the receiving station recently located on the island.

SHOE TALKS

FOOTWEAR SPECIALISTS FOR CHILDREN

Lots of little feet walk into this store. Tiny little feet, some just beginning to toddle, others that have learned the strong, imperious stride of the middle age of children. Fitting of the feet of children is one of the most important facilities of this store; we regard the shoe fitting of children as a sacred trust, for it counts for so much in later life.
